Weekly Announcements

There are no Adult Discipleship classes today.

Annual Parish Meeting TODAY at 10:05am in Hampton Hall Join us for refreshments and to hear all the great accomplishments of 2011. Also, Vestry voting continues through the annual meeting. Please vote if you have not already done so.

Tuesday Morning Men's Bible Study in Dandridge A at 7:00am – We are studying the Gospel of Mark and King's Cross by Tim Keller. For Tuesday, January 31st: Mark 4:35-41 and Chapter 5, "The Power," in King's Cross. All men are invited!

Men's Breakfast Thursday, February 2nd at 7:15am in Hampton Hall - Please join the men of the church for worship at 6:45am followed by breakfast and speaker at 7:15am. February's speaker is St. George's own John Fitzgerald. Cost for breakfast is free to first-timers and guests; everyone else pitches in $5.

Race to Nowhere Tuesday, February 7th at 6:30pm in Johnson Hall - Join us to see this enlightening documentary that points out the expectations, pressures, and demands placed on students today, which have increased dramatically in recent years. A discussion will follow about how our faith influences the way we think about success and the "good life" as Christians. Because seating is limited, online registration for tickets is required. Go to www.stgeorgesnashville.org/students/forms to register for up to four tickets. Space is limited to 200 so sign up now!

Helping Our Heroes - St. George's wants to show its gratitude for your serviceman or servicewoman's sacrifice! We will be collecting items for care packages during the week of February 5-12. Red, white, and blue boxes will be placed throughout the building to put your donations in. Items needed include: toothbrushes and toothpaste, shampoo, deodorant, baby wipes, sports bars, cookies, crackers, books, phone cards, footballs, etc. A complete list of items is in the upcoming February edition of The Shield. A letter or card addressed to "Dear Soldier" or "Dear Hero" would also be much appreciated.

25th Anniversary of the Nave - We are celebrating the 25th anniversary of the building of the "Big Church" at the 11:15am service on May 6th with a reception following. Included in the festivities will be a video of "remembrances." How you can help? Video equipment will be set up in the church offices on Sunday, February 5th and 12th from 11:00am-1:30pm to film one to two minute responses to the question, "I remember when we built the "big church..." You fill in the dots with your recollection! We hope those of you who were here 25 years ago will participate in this labor of love and piece of St. George's history. Please write down your "memory" of this event to prepare for the recording session. Coffee and cookies will be available while you wait your turn to "remember."

Daughters of the King Will Meet Sunday, February 12th at 10:05am in the Library - The Daughters of the King are an Episcopalian lay order for women devoted to prayer, service, and evangelism. Anyone interested in learning more about the Daughters is welcome to attend the meeting. For more information, contact Lisa Faehl at lisa.faehl@comcast.net or 673-8134.

C3: The Second Annual Christ, Church, Culture Conference March 1-3 - This year's C3 Conference will be even more dynamic and practical than last year's! The theme is "Engage the World." The 103rd Archbishop of Canterbury, George Carey, along with last year's warmly received Andy Crouch and Mako Fujimura are among the presenters. Additionally, youth culture expert (and mother) Kenda Creasy Dean will provide insights on youth. There will even be a special workshop track for parents of young people. Please help us in our planning by registering now! St. George's members receive a special rate. See www.stgeorgesinstitute.org/C3 to register or contact the Rev. Tim Jones at 385-2150 x 217.

Old Palm Crosses Needed for Ash Wednesday - Please bring in your Palm Sunday palm crosses from previous years to be burned to become the ashes for Ash Wednesday. The Altar Guild will have a basket in the Narthex to collect them.

American Advantage Miles Needed - We are in need of 65,000 miles from one account which equals a scholarship for a youth to go to Honduras this June. Please contact Patsy Curry at 385-2078 if you can help.

THE FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY
THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Receive, Live, Share

Welcome to worship! We pray that our time of worship will express praise and thanks to God for the gift of Christ, and help you live a more faithful, abundant life.

If you are a visitor, please know that we are delighted that you are here. We know that following the beautiful and ancient worship of the Episcopal Church is not always easy for those unfamiliar with the Anglican tradition. Please do not feel obligated to do anything but to enjoy the service reverently and expectantly.

We invite newcomers to fill out a visitor's card, found in the pew rack, placing it in the offering plate or handing it to a member of the clergy.

Inside this bulletin, page numbers on the far right column refer to the red Book of Common Prayer in the pew racks. You will find the hymns and other sung parts of the service in the blue book, The Hymnal 1982. If a song has an "S" in front of it, it will be found in the service music section of the Hymnal, near the front.

At the time of The Holy Communion, all baptized Christians are welcome to receive the sacrament, regardless of age or denomination. Ushers will direct you to the altar rail, and you may return to your pew on an outside aisle. Gluten-free wafers are available at the 8:45am and 11:15am services from the intinction cup to the left of the lectern.

Nursery care is available for infants, toddlers, and two-year-olds during the 8:45am and 11:15am services as well as the Christian Discipleship hour that begins at 10:05am. Childcare (for ages 3-5) is also available during the 8:45am service.

Large Print Prayer Books and Hearing Assistance Aids are available in the church foyer. Ask an usher for help.

We are grateful for your presence!

The Great Thanksgiving: Eucharistic Prayer C

BCP 369

The people remain standing.

Celebrant

The Lord be with you.

People

And also with you.

Celebrant

Lift up your hearts.

People

We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant Proceeds

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise. . . .

Celebrant and People sing “Holy, Holy, Holy . . .”

(S128) Mathias

The people may stand or kneel as the Celebrant continues

The Breaking of the Bread
