

Finding Security in an Insecure World 2022

Outline-Lesson One

Please note: The Scriptures marked with an asterisk (*) are those to which we will be turning.

I. Overview of course

- a. The security that comes from our position “in Christ”
- b. The security that comes from confidence in the truthfulness of the Scriptures
- c. The security that comes from knowing God; his love and faithfulness towards us.
- d. The security that comes from knowing and understanding the promises we have as believers
- e. The security that comes from the transforming power at work in us
- f. The security that comes from knowing our future in Christ
- g. The security that comes from acting on our faith in God
- h. The security that comes from letting go and resting in the Lord

II. The promises of God in *II Pet 1:2-4

- a. Promise of grace and peace being multiplied unto us
 - (1) Conditioned on having knowledge of God and of Jesus
- b. Promise we have already been given all that pertains unto life and godliness
 - (1) Appropriated through the knowledge of God and Jesus

- c. Promise that we might be partakers of the divine nature
 - (1) Conditioned on appropriating these promises

III. The promises of God in *John 8:31-32

- a. Promise will be Jesus' disciples
 - (1) Conditioned on continuing in Jesus' word
- b. Promise of knowing the truth
 - (1) Conditioned on continuing in Jesus' word
- c. Promise truth will set us free
 - (1) Conditioned on continuing in Jesus' word
 - (2) Connection between Jesus and the Scriptures (Jo 1:1; Jo 14:6; II Tim 2:15)

IV. The promise of God in *Mat 7:24-27

- a. Promise we will survive life's storms
 - (1) Conditioned on hearing and doing what Jesus says (*Jas 1:25)
 - (2) Conditioned on building house on rock rather than sand (I Cor 10:4; Mat 16:15-18)

V. Our part in appropriating the promises of God

- a. Must study and understand what the Scriptures say
 - (1) Roll of Holy Spirit in helping us (I Cor 2:9-14; Jo 16:13; Eph 1:16-23; 3:14-21)
- b. Must believe and act on what the Scriptures say (Jas 1:25)