

PLANNED GIVING COMMITTEE

OVERVIEW

The members of the Planned Giving committee support the church's mission to "receive, live, and share the abundant life of Jesus Christ" by encouraging parishioners to support both the current and future work of the church through giving to the endowment for St. George's.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Work with the Planned Giving chair(s) and Director of Parish Giving on developing and executing strategy, communicating information about planned giving, and encouraging parishioners to consider giving a planned gift to St. George's.
- Serve as "ambassadors" for planned giving.
- Develop and maintain relationships with parishioners who may be interested in planned giving.
- Call on parishioners to ask for planned gifts.
- Provide guidance on strategies for success.
- Provide written testimonials about your own planned giving or stewardship story; provide verbal testimonials at Sunday services or special events.
- Attend planned giving committee meetings.
- Serve as greeters/hosts at special events or special Sundays that focus on planned giving.
- Make your own planned gift to the endowment for St. George's.

RELATIONSHIPS
