

BRADFORD GALLERY DOCENTS

OVERVIEW

The Bradford Gallery Docents support the church's mission to "receive, live, and share the abundant life of Jesus Christ" by providing tours of Bradford Gallery exhibits designed to engage the Christian imagination and celebrate the fullness of God's kingdom through art.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Work with the clergy Curator of the Bradford Gallery to design and offer tours to parishioners and to community members. Specific tasks might include:

- Develop appropriate docent tour/talking points for each exhibit.
- Offer touring opportunities as deemed desirable. Possibly be available during gallery hours to give tours to drop-ins.
- Contact and host community groups for touring.

RELATIONSHIPS

Docents will work with the Gallery Curator, other interested parishioners, and community groups interested in touring the gallery.

TIME COMMITMENT

1-2 hours a week or as available

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

Appreciation for art, enjoyment in learning and sharing information, good communications skills, willingness to reach out to community groups

RESOURCES AND TRAINING

This team will have input from the Gallery Curator and the artists for their tours and information.
