

OVERVIEW

The Bradford Gallery Events Committee supports the church's mission to "receive, live, and share the abundant life of Jesus Christ" by coordinating special events at St. George's Bradford Gallery, which hosts exhibits designed to engage the Christian imagination and celebrate the fullness of God's kingdom through art.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Together with the Bradford Gallery Events Chair, work with the Gallery Curator to create, coordinate, and host events held in the Bradford Gallery which focus on exhibits displayed therein. Such events will include exhibit openings, closings, and other events focusing on St. George's arts and music. Specific work on such events will include:

- Meet with the Events Chair to plan Gallery events.
- Work with chair and appropriate volunteers and staff to coordinate event setup, food and beverage, décor, and communications.
- Attend and host Gallery events.

RELATIONSHIPS

The Bradford Gallery Events Committee will work with the Bradford Gallery Events Chair, Gallery Curator, event support volunteers, sextons, and other appropriate staff.

TIME COMMITMENT

4-6 hours approximately 4 times a year

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

Hosting, welcoming, and coordination

RESOURCES AND TRAINING

This Gallery Events Committee will have input and support from the committee Chair, Gallery Curator, and appropriate staff and events volunteers.
