PROCESSIONAL HYMN • 175 Hail thee, festival day!

SALVE FESTA DIES
Brass parts by Gerry Senechal

Refrain R. Vaughan Williams

Hail thee, fes - ti - val day! Blest day that art hal - lowed for ev - er.
Day where-on Christ a - rose, break - ing the king - dom of death.

verse 1 verse 2

Lo, the fair beau-ty of earth, from the death of the winter a - ris - ing!
Ev - ery good gift of the year_ now with its Mas-ter re - turns:

He who was nailed to the cross is Lord and the ru - ler of na - ture;
all things cre a - ted on earth sing to the glo - ry of God:___

3 Daily the loveliness grows,
Adorned with the glory of blossom;
Heaven her gates unbars,
Flinging her increase of light: Refrain

4 Rise from the grave now, O Lord,
Who art author of life and creation.
Treading the pathway of death,
Life thou bestowest on all: Refrain

5 God the creator, the Lord,
Who rulest the earth and the heavens,
Guard us from harm without,
Cleanse us from evil within: Refrain

6 Jesus the health of the world,
Enlighten our minds, thou Redeemer,
Son of the Father supreme,
Only begotten of God: Refrain

7 Spirit of life and power,
Now flow in us, fount of our being,
Light that dost lighten all,
Life that in all dost abide: Refrain

8 Praise to the Giver of good!
Thou Love who art author of concord,
Pour out thy balm on our souls,
Order our ways in thy peace: Refrain

Alleluia. Christ is risen.
The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

The Book of Common Prayer (BCP), p. 355

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

1. Jesus Christ is risen today, Alleluia!
Our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
Who did once upon the cross, Alleluia!
Suffer to redeem our loss. Alleluia!

4. Sing we to our God above, Alleluia!
Praise eternal as his love, Alleluia!
Praise him, all ye heavenly host, Alleluia!
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Alleluia!

THE COLLECT OF EASTER DAY

BCP, p. 222

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Let us pray.

O God, who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection delivered us from the power of our enemy: Grant us so to die daily to sin, that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his resurrection; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

FIRST READING

Jeremiah 31:1-6

At that time, says the Lord, I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people.

Thus says the Lord:

The people who survived the sword found grace in the wilderness; when Israel sought for rest, the Lord appeared to him from far away. I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore I have continued my faithfulness to you. Again I will build you, and you shall be built, O virgin Israel! Again you shall take your tambourines, and go forth in the dance of the merrymakers. Again you shall plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria; the planters shall plant, and shall enjoy the fruit. For there shall be a day when sentinels will call in the hill country of Ephraim: "Come, let us go up to Zion, to the Lord our God."

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GPS

I will give thanks to You, for You answered me, and have become my salvation.

- 1 Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
his mercy endures for ever.
- 2 Let Israel now proclaim,
“His mercy endures for ever.”
- 14 The Lord is my strength and my song,
and he has become my salvation.
- 15 There is a sound of exultation and victory
in the tents of the righteous:

Response

- 16 “The right hand of the Lord has triumphed!
the right hand of the Lord is exalted!
the right hand of the Lord has triumphed!”
- 17 I shall not die, but live,
and declare the works of the Lord.
- 18 The Lord has punished me sorely,
but he did not hand me over to death.
- 19 Open for me the gates of righteousness;
I will enter them
I will offer thanks to the Lord.

Response

- 20 “This is the gate of the Lord;
he who is righteous may enter.”
- 21 I will give thanks to you, for you answered me and have become my salvation.
- 22 The same stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.
- 23 This is the Lord’s doing,
and it is marvelous in our eyes.
- 24 On this day the Lord has acted;
we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Response

SECOND READING

Colossians 3:1-4

Since you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

The Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.

Please stand, as you are able.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Matthew 28:1-10

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. And suddenly there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men. But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.' This is my message for you." So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. Suddenly Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!" And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him. Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

The Rev. J. Malone Gilliam

Please stand, as you are able, for the Creed.

THE NICENE CREED

BCP, p. 326

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE, FORM IV

BCP, p. 388

Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world. Lord, in your mercy,
Hear our prayer.

Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good. We pray especially for the conflict in Ukraine. We also pray for those serving in the armed forces. Lord, in your mercy,
Hear our prayer.

Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory. Lord in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us. Lord in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation. Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom. Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others. You are invited to add your own intercessions and thanksgivings, either silently or aloud.

Silence is kept.

*The celebrant prays the concluding Collect and the people respond Amen.

THE PEACE

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Please be seated.

THE OFFERTORY

Ye Choirs of New Jerusalem

Charles V. Stanford

Ye choirs of new Jerusalem,
Your sweetest notes employ,
The Paschal victory to hymn
In strains of holy joy.

Triumphant in His glory now
To Him all power is given;
To Him in one communion bow
All saints in earth and heaven.

For Judah's Lion bursts His chains,
Crushing the serpent's head;
And cries aloud through death's domains
To wake the imprisoned dead.

While we, His soldiers, praise our King,
His mercy we implore,
Within His palace bright to bring
And keep us evermore.

Devouring depths of hell
Their prey at His command restore;
His ransomed hosts pursue their way
Where Jesus goes before.

All glory to the Father be,
All glory to the Son,
All glory, Holy Ghost, to Thee,
While endless ages run. Alleluia! Amen.

Please stand, as you are able.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise Him, all creatures here below; Alle - lu - lu - ia! Alle - lu - ia! Praise Him a - bove, ye heav'n - ly host; Praise Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost! Alle - lu - ia! Alle - lu - ia! Alle - lu - lu - ia! Alle - lu - ia! Alle - lu - ia!

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING Eucharistic Prayer D

BCP, p. 372

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is truly right to glorify you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever. Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance. Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we say,

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts:

Heaven and earth are full of thy glory.

Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High.

Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Please kneel or remain standing, as you are able.

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ’s death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you, Lord our God.

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ. Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace. And grant that we may find our inheritance with St. George and all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD & THE FRACTION ANTHEM

Christ our Passover

(Hymnal S155) Near

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia. Christ our Pass-o-ver is sac-ri-ficed for us; there-fore let us keep the feast. Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

NOTES ON RECEIVING COMMUNION All baptized Christians are invited to receive the sacrament, regardless of age or denomination. Those who have not been baptized are welcome to a blessing—indicate your desire for a blessing by crossing your arms over your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available at the side station.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

ANTHEM • O sacrum convivium

Thomas Tallis

*O sacrum convivium,
in quo Christus sumitur;
recolitur memoria passionis ejus;
mens impletur gratia;
et futurae gloriae
nobis pignus datur.*

O sacred banquet,
wherein Christ is received;
the memorial of his passion is renewed;
the soul is filled with grace;
and a pledge of future glory
is given to us.

ANTHEM • This joyful Eastertide

Philip Ledger

This joyful Eastertide, away with sin and sorrow!
My Love, the Crucified, hath sprung to life this morrow.

Refrain

Had Christ, that once was slain, never burst his three-day prison,
Our faith had been in vain: but now hath Christ arisen.

My flesh in hope shall rest, and for a season slumber:
Till trump from east to west shall wake the dead in number.

Refrain

Death's flood hath lost its chill, since Jesus crossed the river:
Lover of souls, from ill my passing soul deliver.

Refrain

Please kneel, as you are able.

THE POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

BCP, p. 366

Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

THE BLESSING

May Almighty God, who has redeemed us and made us his children through the resurrection of his Son our Lord, bestow upon you the riches of his blessing. Amen.

May God, who through the water of baptism has raised us from sin into newness of life, make you holy and worthy to be united with Christ for ever. Amen.

May God, who has brought us out of bondage to sin into true and lasting freedom in the Redeemer, bring you to your eternal inheritance. Amen.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

Please stand, as you are able.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN • 180 He is risen, his is risen!

EASTER HYMN
Brass parts by Gerry Senechal

1. He is risen, he is risen!
Tell it out with joyful voice:
he has burst his three days' prison;
let the whole wide earth rejoice:
death is conquered, we are free
Christ has won the victory.

2. Come, ye sad and fearful hearted, with glad smile and radiant brow!
Death's long shadows have departed;
Jesus' woes are over now
and the passion that he bore sin and pain can vex no more.

3. Come, with high and holy hymning, hail our Lord's triumphant day;
not one darksome cloud is dimming yonder glorious morning ray,
breaking o'er the purple east,
symbol of our Easter feast.

4. He is risen, he is risen!
He hath opened heaven's gate:
we are free from sin's dark prison,
risen to a holier state;
and a brighter Easter beam
on our longing eyes shall stream.

THE DISMISSAL

Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit. Alleluia, alleluia.
Thanks be to God. Alleluia, Alleluia.

ART NOTE

The detail of Christ from The Ascension (as seen on the cover) features him robed in gold and seated in a blue orb lifted by winged angels. The Rev. John Howard Walstead painted icons such as this work using techniques that combined the traditional with the modern. His style of iconography most closely resembles a technique from the 14th through 16th centuries featuring bold composition, large amounts of gold leaf, and the use of cinnabar, a bright reddish orange pigment made from ground mercury ore mixed with sulphur. He also made his own paints from ground mineral pigments suspended in egg yolk, which acts as a binding medium. Layers of different pigments—from dark to light—create the effects of shading, draped garments, and skin colors. The resulting image seems to radiate light from within, representing the light of God breaking through the darkness. The colors used in iconography also express specific meanings: gold represents Christ and the divine, uncreated light of God himself, and blue represents the heavenly Kingdom of God. This icon was presented to St. George's by parishioners in honor of the Rt. Rev. Bertram Nelson Herlong in 2008. It is currently on display in the Nave. ['The Ascension' (2005) by the Rev. John Howard Walstead (1932-2014). Gouache and gilt on panel. 84 x 43 in.]

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

In your prayers this week, please pray for the following:

In the Anglican Communion, we pray for Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby, the Province of the Episcopal Church of Sudan, and the peace of Jerusalem.

In the Episcopal Church, we pray for Presiding Bishop, Michael Curry.

In the Diocese of Tennessee, we pray for our Bishop, John Bauerschmidt, and for the Church in Jerusalem.

In our community, we pray for Charlotte Road Baptist Church.

In our parish, we pray for our Nashville Fellows, Ridge, Viona, Josh, Morgan, and Hannah; and our Choral Scholar, Olivia.

WEEKLY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome to St. George's Thank you for celebrating Easter with us. If you're new to St. George's, we invite you to share more about yourself using a Connect Card. Whether you are here for the day or a regular member of our community, we are delighted to share the feast of the resurrection with you.

Special Offering for Mississippi The town of Rolling Fork, MS, experienced devastating loss of life and property from the tornado on March 24. We are collecting a special offering for the Episcopal Chapel of the Cross in Rolling Fork, which was severely damaged. The Rev. Polk Van Zandt, who recently served as a Priest Associate at St. George's, has deep family ties to this historic parish. His sister and brother-in-law are longtime members of this church, having served faithfully in the Vestry and in other leadership positions. Our offering will be sent to the church for their immediate use as they respond to needs in the community. To contribute, please give online, drop a check in the plate with "tornado relief" in the memo line, or text "GEORGE Tornado" to 73256.

Young Adults Concert Event Our young adults have purchased a block of tickets for Andrew Peterson's Resurrection Letters Tour. Space is limited for this concert event on Monday, April 10, at 7:00pm at Belmont's Fisher Center. Buy your ticket at stgeorgesnashville.org/youngadults.

Finding Jesus in Healthcare Bureaucracy, burnout, moral compromise — in contemporary health care, it can be hard to see Jesus. Join us for a free event at St. George's on Tuesday, April 11, at 7:00pm with guest speaker, Dr. Farr Curlin, Co-Director of Duke Divinity School's Theology, Medicine, and Culture Initiative. He will diagnose the challenges that Christian health care practitioners face and will offer surprising resources for renewing our vocations as healers. Registration is required for this free event. Visit stgeorgesnashville.org/healthcare for details.

Mission Day Serve around our city with family and friends in the spirit of Christian love on Saturday, April 22. Each Mission Day offers a selection of new opportunities to do good work and connect more deeply with our partners and each other. Details and registration are available online at stgeorgesnashville.org/outreach.

St. George's Feast Day Celebration Mark your calendars and save the date for a special fellowship event marking the feast day of St. George. More News & Events There are many exciting opportunities to learn and grow in Christ with us at St. George's. Visit our website at stgeorgesnashville.org or contact the church office at 615-385-2150 with questions.

Your Gifts Make a Difference Thank you for supporting St. George's with your financial gifts and pledges. Donations like yours allow us to continue serving this congregation and our community by offering worship services, discipleship opportunities, and mission work. We could not do this work without you. Visit stgeorgesnashville.org/give or use the QR to donate online.

ORGAN INSTALLATION UPDATE

Visible progress is being made on the left side of the organ with the installation of the red pipe shades. The pipe shades match St. George's logo, and John-Paul Buzard applied gold leaf crosses to each piece by hand. Under each pipe shade is a special piece called a sky rack, with notched areas perfectly sized for each façade pipe. Later, the façade pipes will be inserted into each slot of the sky racks.
