

The Essentials: Exodus

Session 1

Exodus 1:22 – 2:10

Opening Collect

Together: Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Watch Video

Read: Exodus 1:22 – 2:10

Discussion:

1. The obvious problem at the beginning of Exodus is that the Israelites are enslaved under a wicked and unjust empire. And while none of us are formal victims of slavery, how might that condition inform our own lives? What holds us captive?
2. Read v. 22. What does that say about the leadership of Egypt?
3. Even in the midst of severe injustice and captivity, baby Moses is saved by love. How do you think that fact illuminates our own struggles?
4. Who do you think is ultimately in control within this narrative?
5. Consider how the beginning of Moses' life looks like the beginning of Jesus' life. Share your thoughts with your group.

Check in and Closing Prayer

Exodus 1:22 – 2:10

Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, “Every son that is born to the Hebrews<sup>[a]</sup> you shall throw into the Nile, but you shall let every daughter live.”

Now a man from the house of Levi went and married a Levite woman. <sup>2</sup>The woman conceived and bore a son, and when she saw that he was a fine baby, she hid him three months. <sup>3</sup>When she could hide him no longer she got a papyrus basket for him and plastered it with bitumen and pitch; she put the child in it and placed it among the reeds on the bank of the river. <sup>4</sup>His sister stood at a distance, to see what would happen to him.

<sup>5</sup>The daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her attendants walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her maid to bring it. <sup>6</sup>When she opened it, she saw the child. He was crying, and she took pity on him. “This must be one of the Hebrews’ children,” she said. <sup>7</sup>Then his sister said to Pharaoh’s daughter, “Shall I go and get you a nurse from the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?” <sup>8</sup>Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Yes.” So the girl went and called the child’s mother. <sup>9</sup>Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Take this child and nurse it for me, and I will give you your wages.” So the woman took the child and nursed it. <sup>10</sup>When the child grew up, she brought him to Pharaoh’s daughter, and he became her son. She named him Moses, “because,” she said, “I drew him out of the water.”
