

NEWCOMER GATHERING HOSPITALITY

OVERVIEW

The Newcomer Gathering Hospitality Team supports the church's mission to "receive, live, and share the abundant life of Jesus Christ" by helping host monthly Newcomer Gatherings held on Sunday mornings in the church Library.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provide pickup snack (such as doughnuts, muffins, etc.) 3-4 times a year for this Sunday morning gathering.
- On occasion, be willing to attend the gathering to visit with newcomers and introduce yourself.
- Wear your name tag, warmly greet newcomers and guests.

RELATIONSHIPS

- The Newcomer Gathering Hospitality Team works with the Director of Lay Ministry Engagement, and through this process engages with newcomers.
- This team works in communion with other welcome team members to create an inviting and approachable environment, and to make St. George's feel like "home" to newcomers.

TIME COMMITMENT

Approximately 1-2 hours, 3-4 times a year

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

Warm and hospitable spirit; willingness to provide welcoming food for visitors; enthusiastic to make them feel welcome

RESOURCES AND TRAINING

This team will work with the Director of Lay Ministry Engagement.
