

MEN'S MINISTRY COMMITTEE

OVERVIEW

The Men's Ministry Committee supports the church's mission to "receive, live, and share the abundant life of Jesus Christ" by supporting, advising, and planning events, fellowship, activities, and worship opportunities focused on men.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The Men's Ministry Committee will meet at regular intervals as determined, with a focus on meeting the spiritual, fellowship, engagement, and pastoral needs of men in the parish. Strategic planning will occur at these meetings, as well as specific plans for executing events. Examples of opportunities planned are fellowship events, guest speakers, retreats, and other gatherings. Details planned will include focus, time and date, location, speaker if desired, budget, food, etc. for each opportunity.

RELATIONSHIPS

This committee welcomes all who wish to participate with a desire to work closely with each other, staff, clergy, and those involved in men's ministry opportunities.

TIME COMMITMENT

Will vary. One regular meeting per month, plus time spent supporting specific events/opportunities.

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

Organization, thoughtful ideas on how to best serve and engage men, willingness to "own" and execute events.

RESOURCES AND TRAINING

None needed.
