THE WORD OF GOD

Please stand, as you are able.

OPENING HYMN • 400 All creatures of our God and King

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

OPENING ACCLAMATION

The Book of Common Prayer (BCP), p.413

Alleluia. Christ is risen.

The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

There is one Body and one Spirit;

There is one hope in God's call to us;

One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;

One God and Father of all.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

BCP, p. 225

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

THE READING

Acts 17:22-31

Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, "Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, 'To an unknown god.' What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him—though indeed he is not far from each one of us. For 'In him we live and move and have our being'; as even some of your own poets have said, 'For we too are his offspring.' Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals. While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead."

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The response is sung first by the choir, then by all as indicated

Bless our God, you peo - ples; make the voice of His praise to be heard.

7 Bless our God, you peoples;
make the voice of his praise to be heard;

8 Who holds our souls in life,
and will not allow our feet to slip.

9 For you, O God, have proved us;
you have tried us just as silver is tried.

10 You brought us into the snare;
you laid heavy burdens upon our backs.

Response

11 You let enemies ride over our heads;
we went through fire and water;
but you brought us out into a place of refreshment.

12 I will enter your house with burnt-offerings and will pay you my vows, which I promised with my lips and spoke with my mouth when I was in trouble.

13 I will offer you sacrifices of fat beasts
with the smoke of rams;
I will give you oxen and goats.

14 Come and listen, all you who fear God, and I will tell you what he has done for me.

Response

15 I called out to him with my mouth, and his praise was on my tongue.

16 If I had found evil in my heart,
the Lord would not have heard me;

17 But in truth God has heard me;
he has attended to the voice of my prayer.

18 Blessed be God, who has not rejected my prayer, nor withheld his love from me.

Response

Please stand, as you are able.

HYMN • 449 O love, how deep, how broad, how high

DEO GRACIAS

Children ages 6 through 11 process to Johnson Hall for Kid's Chapel, returning at the Peace.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

John 14:15-21

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to his disciples, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

SERMON

The Rt. Rev. John C. Bauerschmidt

CONFIRMATION

PRESENTATION AND EXAMINATION OF THE CANDIDATES

BCP, p. 415

Bishop The Candidates will now be presented.

The candidates and their sponsors stand, while the rest of the congregation remains seated.

Sponsors I present these persons for Confirmation.

Bishop Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil?

Candidates I do.

Bishop Do you renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?

Candidates I do, and with God’s grace I will follow him as my Savior and Lord.

After all have been presented, the congregation stands and the Bishop addresses the congregation, saying

Bishop Will you who witness these vows do all in your power to support these persons in their life in Christ?

People We will.

Bishop Let us join with those who are committing themselves to Christ and renew our own baptismal covenant.

THE BAPTISMAL COVENANT

BCP, p. 416

Bishop Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Bishop Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven,

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Bishop Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?
People I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

Bishop Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People I will, with God's help.

Bishop Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People I will, with God's help.

Bishop Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People I will, with God's help.

Bishop Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

People I will, with God's help.

Bishop Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

People I will, with God's help.

PRAYERS FOR THE CANDIDATES

BCP, p. 305

Bishop Let us now pray for these persons who have renewed their commitment to Christ.

Leader Deliver them, O Lord, from the way of sin and death.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader Open their hearts to your grace and truth.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader Fill them with your holy and life-giving Spirit.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader Keep them in the faith and communion of your holy Church.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader Teach them to love others in the power of the Spirit.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader Send them into the world in witness to your love.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader Bring them to the fullness of your peace and glory.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Almighty God, we thank you that by the death and resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ you have overcome sin and brought us to yourself, and that by the sealing of your Holy Spirit you have bound us to your service. Renew in these your servants the covenant you made with them at their Baptism. Send them forth in the power of that Spirit to perform the service you set before them; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The congregation may be seated.

CONFIRMATION

The Bishop lays hands upon each one and says

Defend, O Lord, your servant N. with your heavenly grace, that he/she may continue yours for ever, and daily increase in your Holy Spirit more and more, until he/she comes to your everlasting kingdom. Amen.

Please stand, as you are able.

Almighty and everliving God, let your fatherly hand ever be over these your servants; let your Holy Spirit ever be with them; and so lead them in the knowledge and obedience of your Word, that they may serve you in this life, and dwell with you in the life to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PEACE

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Please be seated. The loose plate offering today is designated to the Bishop's Discretionary Fund.

THE OFFERTORY

I will not leave you comfortless

William Byrd

I will not leave you comfortless, Alleluia.

I go, and come again to you, Alleluia.

And your heart shall rejoice, Alleluia.

Please stand, as you are able.

AT THE PRESENTATION The Doxology

(Hymn 380, verse 3) OLD 100TH

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host: praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING Eucharistic Prayer B

BCP, p. 367

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

The celebrant says a Proper Preface.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, holy, holy

(Hymnal S125) Proulx

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san - na in the high-est. Ho - san - na in the high-est. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high-est. Ho - san - na in the high-est.

Please kneel or remain standing, as you are able.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with George and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Christ our Passover(Hymnal S155) Near

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia. Christ our Pass-o-ver is sac-ri- ficed for us; there-fore let us keep the feast. Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

NOTES ON RECEIVING COMMUNION All baptized Christians are invited to receive the sacrament, regardless of age or denomination. Those who have not been baptized are welcome to a blessing—indicate your desire for a blessing by crossing your arms over your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available at the side station.

After receiving communion, those who desire it may go to the Chapel for healing prayer.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

If ye love meThomas Tallis

If ye love me, keep my commandments,
And I will pray the Father,
And he shall give you another comforter,
That he may bide with you for ever,
Even the spirit of truth.

If ye love mePhilip Wilby

If ye love me, keep my commandments,
And I will pray the Father,
And he shall give you another comforter,
That he may abide with you for ever,
Even the spirit of truth.
And ye know him, for he dwelleth with you,
And shall be in you.
I will not leave you comfortless.
I will come to you.

Please kneel, as you are able.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

BCP, p. 366

Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

THE BLESSING

The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

Please stand, as you are able.

MUSIC NOTES

The anthems today display a variety of distinct styles though the text comes from the same source in the gospel reading. William Byrd (c.1540-1623) benefitted immensely from the favor of the Queen Elizabeth I. The Protestant queen appreciated Byrd's musical genius, and she spared him even though he remained devoted to his Catholic faith. I will not leave you comfortless shows his genius in contrapuntal writing, a polyphonic ("many voices") style of composition. Each part sings intricate melodic lines at different times, but the individual lines still fit together and make sense with each other. Listen for the bell-like "Alleluia" repeated throughout the piece. Thomas Tallis (1505-1585) is a contemporary of Byrd. His music reflects the history of England, as he adapted to different musical demands during the different reigns of Henry VIII, King Edward VI, Queen Mary I, and Queen Elizabeth I. If ye love me by Tallis is a beloved anthem, simple in form but elegant in its melodic shape and simple contrapuntal writing. Philip Wilby's (b. 1949) modern setting of If ye love me is a completely different style, romantic in its writing, as well as lush and rich in its organ accompaniment.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

In your prayers this week, please pray for the following:

In the Anglican Communion, we pray for the Church of the Province of West Africa.

In the Diocese of Tennessee, we pray for our parish of St. George's.

In our community, we pray for West End United Methodist Church.

In our parish, we pray for today's confirmands and their sponsors; in thanksgiving for the graduation of our Nashville Fellows, Molly, Gretta, and Emma; and for our Choral Scholar, Olivia.

We pray for those who are ill, especially Reba Barker, Sandy Berry, Lizzie Kappleman, Susan Narramore, Acra Samuels, Trish Thomas, and Trilby Williams.

We pray for those faithfully departed, especially Wendy Chalk, mother of Stephanie Grant; and Lucianne Forcum Wilt.

WEEKLY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Ministry Match May! This month, we're celebrating the gifts of the Holy Spirit. God has blessed each of us with unique gifts and talents, and we invite you to share your gifts with your church family. As we look to Pentecost on May 28, we are asking new and long-time members to take the Ministry Match survey if you have not already done so in the past. This 3-minute survey allows you to identify new ways to serve in and through the church by using your God-given gifts. Every member who has taken the survey will be entered in an exciting raffle on Sunday, May 28. Find the survey and browse volunteer opportunities at stgeorgesnashville.org/ministrymatch.

Parish Picnic & Combined Worship on May 21 The annual church picnic is the perfect way to gather together as we shift into the summer season. Our 10:00am traditional and 10:00am Table services will worship together in the Nave, then gather outside behind the church for food, fellowship, and play. RSVP and sign up to volunteer at stgeorgesnashville.org/parishpicnic. Please note that overflow parking and shuttle service will be available starting at 9:00am at Truxton Trust (4525 Harding Pike).

Farmers Market Season is Here! St. George's farmers market brings the community together. Visit the market at the church every Thursday from 3:30-6:00pm to shop for a variety of fresh fruits and vegetables, baked goods, meat, fish, and more. In addition to supporting local growers and makers, a portion of the proceeds are donated to organizations responding to food insecurity in our city. Watch your email, and follow @stgeorgesfarmersmarket on Facebook and Instagram for weekly updates.

Annual Laymen's Roundup All men of the diocese are invited to a catfish dinner with Bishop Bauerschmidt at St. David's Church on Wednesday, May 17, at 6:00pm. We will enjoy good conversation and food, and we'll hear a few words from the bishop and details on the upcoming Laymen's Conference at St. Mary's, Sewanee in July. We will gather for fellowship at 5:30pm, with dinner beginning at 6:00pm. RSVP for the $15 dinner by Monday, May 15 at stgeorgesnashville.org/news.

Breaking Bread Please join us for food and fellowship in Bradford Gallery on Wednesday, May 17, at 6:00pm. RSVP at 615-385-2150 x 262 or reserve@stgeorgesnashville.org. Suggested donation is $8. Proceeds benefit the Choristers of St. George's.

Compline Traditionally the last service of the day before bedtime, this brief and beautiful service is set in a darkened church and sung by a small men's choir. Join us on Wednesday, May 17, in the Nave at 9:15pm. Stay as long as you wish in this quiet space afterwards, departing in silence.

Prime Time Speakers Series On Thursday, May 18, at 11:30am, our presentation will be given by Mattie & Michael Shane Neal on "Two Generations in the Art World." Please make your reservation in advance for the $12 lunch online at stgeorgesnashville.org/seniors or our reservation line at 615-385-2150 x 262.

Sonus Choir Concert Sonus is a Nashville-based a capella choir with an emphasis on modern and sacred music. They are presenting a concert titled "Songs of Peace" here at St. George's on Thursday, May 18, at 7:30pm. Suggested donation is $20.

Choral Evensong Please join us for a Choral Evensong on Sunday, May 21, at 5:00pm in the Nave. Evensong is a service that has been sung daily in the Anglican Church throughout the world since the 16th century in which choral music and chant illuminate biblical texts to allow a time of stillness, meditation, and prayer.

Marywood University Chamber Singers The Marywood University Chamber Singers is a nationally-recognized ensemble from Marywood University in Scranton, Pennsylvania. They will present a concert at St. George's on Saturday, May 27, at 7:00pm. The program features Poulenc's Mass in G major, as well as music by Italian and Norwegian composers: Palestrina, Gesualdo, Menotti, Kverno, Arnesen, Gjeilo, Nystedt, and Hovland.

Pentecost Candle Lighting On Sunday, May 28, we will celebrate Pentecost and gift of the Holy Spirit. We believe that the Holy Spirit works in our lives, forming us into the men and women God created us to be; forming us into the image of Jesus. To help our children encounter and participate in this promise, we will celebrate a special Pentecost candle-lighting liturgy as part of the 10:00am traditional service. Following the homily, children who are ages 3 through 6th grade will be invited to come forward and choose a fruit of the Spirit they wish to receive from God. Once all children have selected a gift, we'll pray over the children together. Parents are invited to accompany younger children or children who may need assistance.

Guest Preacher Bishop Eagles We look forward to a visit from the Rt. Rev. Peter Eagles, Bishop of Sodor and Man. He'll join us to preach at the 10:00am traditional service on Sunday, May 28. A large portion of his ministry has been with the Royal Army Chaplains' Department, serving soldiers and their families. Called by the church in 2017 to serve as Bishop, he cares for one of the oldest dioceses in the Church of England.

Lemonade & Cookies One of our favorite summer traditions will be back in just a few weeks. Lemonade & Cookies kicks off on Sunday, May 28, after the 10:00am services. This is a wonderful way to show hospitality to newcomers and share fellowship during the summer. Each week we need volunteers to bake or buy 4 dozen cookies each and serve as hosts for the fellowship hour. If you or your small group would like to provide cookies and serve as hosts one week this summer, please sign up online at stgeorgesnashville.org/lemonade or contact Mary Stinson at timandmary128@gmail.com.

Seniors Helping Others All seniors are invited to join us in the Library on Thursday, June 1 to write cards for the girls at Our Little Roses, Honduras. Contact church member Karen Lackey for more details or if you can help at 615-352-6263 or lackeyjk@comcast.net.

VBS: Heroes Unite! Calling all heroes to come and join us for this year's "super" week of VBS! Kids will see the beautiful truth that they are invited into God's plan as they learn to use their talents to bring glory to him. VBS is for Pre-K 4 to rising 4th grade students. Registration is open at stgeorgesnashville.org/children. We are always looking for adult volunteers and student volunteers (rising 5th grade - 12th grade students). Contact Julie Gibbons at julie.gibbons@stgeorgesnashville.org if you're interested in volunteering.

Episcopal Laymen's Conference The 77th Annual Conference of the Episcopal Churchmen of Tennessee is July 21-23, 2023, at St. Mary's Retreat Center in Sewanee. The beautiful mountaintop setting is the perfect location to host the next generation of Laymen's Conferences. This year's theme is "Renew and Refresh," and speakers include Deacon Art Bass, Vocational Deacon at St. Luke Episcopal Church in Cleveland, TN; The Rev. Dr. Michael T. Justus, History Professor and Dean of the School of Humanities at Truett McConnell University in Georgia; and Sam Venable, Retired Journalist with Knoxville News Sentinel. Register online at tnchurchmen.org.

Holy Land Pilgrimage St. George's returns to the Holy Land and Egypt with a 14-day pilgrimage led by Malone & Mary Gilliam in January 2024. View the itinerary and make your deposit online for this special opportunity at stgeorgesnashville.org/holyland.

Celebrating our Seniors May is Older Americans Month, and it is a special opportunity for us to celebrate the vital contributions of our older adults whose knowledge, expertise, faith experience, and talents have made St. George's stronger. We thank God for them and their joyful ministry among us.

Your Gifts Make a Difference Thank you for supporting St. George's with your financial gifts and pledges. Donations like yours allow us to continue serving this congregation and our community by offering worship services, discipleship opportunities, and mission work. We could not do this work without you. Visit stgeorgesnashville.org/give or scan the QR code to donate online.

ORGAN INSTALLATION UPDATE

With organ construction and pipe installation complete, we enter a less visible phase of work. Tonal Director Fred Bahr and his team are working to fine-tune the character and balance of each pipe's sound. The construction crew will return later for final adjustments as needed.

If you have a "T" switch that is compatible with audio induction systems on your hearing aids, you may switch it on to hear the service better.

Using a smartphone and headphones or a Bluetooth-enabled hearing device, you can tune into the service using AudioFetch. Connect to the Wi-Fi network called AudioFetchExpress, then open the AudioFetch app to start listening.
