PROCESSIONAL HYMN • 432 O praise ye the Lord!

LAUDATE DOMINUM

Alleluia. Christ is risen.

The Book of Common Prayer (BCP), p. 355

The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

SONG OF PRAISE • Glory to you, Lord God

(Hymnal S236) Rutter

1. Glo - ry to you, Lord God of our fa- thers; you are wor- thy of praise; glo-ry to you.

2. Glo - ry to you for the ra - di-ance of your ho-ly Name; we will praise you and high-ly ex - alt you for ev - er.

3. Glo - ry to you in the splen-dor of your tem- ple; on the throne of your ma - jes- ty, glo-ry to you.

4. Glo - ry to you, seat-ed be- tween the Cher - u - bim; we will praise you and high-ly ex - alt you for ev - er.

5. Glo - ry to you, be - hold-ing the depths; in the high vault of hea- ven, glo - ry to you.

6. Glo - ry to you, Fa- ther, Son, and Ho - ly Spi - rit; we will praise you and high - ly ex - alt you for ev - er.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Almighty God, whom truly to know is everlasting life: Grant us so perfectly to know your Son Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life, that we may steadfastly follow his steps in the way that leads to eternal life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

THE READING

1 Peter 2:2-10

Like newborn infants, long for the pure, spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow into salvation— if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good. Come to him, a living stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God's sight, and like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it stands in scripture:

“See, I am laying in Zion a stone,
a cornerstone chosen and precious;
and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame.”

To you then who believe, he is precious; but for those who do not believe,

“The stone that the builders rejected has become the very head of the corner”, and

“A stone that makes them stumble, and a rock that makes them fall.”

They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do. But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

Once you were not a people,
but now you are God's people;
once you had not received mercy,
but now you have received mercy.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE NICENE CREED

BCP, p. 358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE, FORM IV

BCP, p. 388

Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world. Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good. We pray for our President Joe; our Governor Bill; and our Mayor John; all those serving in the armed forces; and for our enemies and those who wish us harm. We pray especially for the conflict in Ukraine. Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory. Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us. Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit, especially Reba Barker, Sandy Berry, Charlotte Cook, Lizzie Kappleman, Susan Narramore, Acra Samuels, Trish Thomas, and Trilby Williams; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation. Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom. Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

*The celebrant prays the concluding Collect and the people respond Amen.

Please kneel, as you are able.

CONFESSION OF SIN

BCP, p. 360

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

THE ABSOLUTION

BCP, p. 360

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Please stand, as you are able.

THE PEACE

BCP, p. 360

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

COMMISSIONING OF GRADUATES

RECOGNITION OF CHORISTERS

RECOGNITION OF YOUTH & VOLUNTEERS

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Please be seated.

THE OFFERTORY

At the Name of Jesus

Ralph Vaughan Williams
The Choir & Choristers of St. George's

At the Name of Jesus every knee shall bow, every tongue confess him King of glory now;
'tis the Father's pleasure we should call him Lord,
who from the beginning was the mighty Word.

Bore it up triumphant, with its human light, through all ranks of creatures, to the central height,
to the throne of Godhead, to the Father's breast, filled it with the glory of that perfect rest.

At his voice creation sprang at once to sight:
all the angel faces, all the hosts of light,
thrones and dominations, stars upon their way,
all the heavenly orders in their great array.

In your hearts enthrone him; there let him subdue
all that is not holy, all that is not true.
Look to him, your Savior, in temptation's hour;
let his will enfold you in its light and power.

Humbled for a season, to receive a Name from the lips of sinners, unto whom he came;
faithfully he bore it spotless to the last,
brought it back victorious when from death he passed.

Christians, this Lord Jesus shall return again, with his Father's glory o'er the earth to reign;
for all wreaths of empire meet upon his brow,
and our hearts confess him King of glory now.

Please stand, as you are able.

THE DOXOLOGY

OLD 100TH

him a - bove, ye heaven - ly host: praise Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING Eucharistic Prayer D

BCP, p. 372

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is truly right to glorify you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever.

Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance.

Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we sing, Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san - na in the high-est. Ho - san - na in the high-est. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high-est. Ho - san - na in the high-est.

Please kneel or remain standing, as you are able.

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

We praise you, we bless you,
 we give thanks to you,
 and we pray to you, Lord our God.

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

And grant that we may find our inheritance with St. George and all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD & THE FRACTION ANTHEM

Christ our Passover

(Hymnal S155) Near

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia. Christ our Pass-o-ver is sac-ri- ficed for us; there-fore let us keep the feast. Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

NOTES ON RECEIVING COMMUNION All baptized Christians are invited to receive the sacrament, regardless of age or denomination. Those who have not been baptized are welcome to a blessing—indicate your desire for a blessing by crossing your arms over your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available at the side station.

After receiving communion, those who desire it may go to the Chapel for healing prayer.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

How lovely is thy dwelling place
from A German Requiem

Johannes Brahms
The Choir & Choristers of St. George's

How lovely is thy dwelling place, O Lord of hosts!
For my soul, it longeth, yea fainteth for the courts of the Lord.
My soul and body crieth out, yea for the living God.
O blest are they that dwell in thy house:
they praise thy Name evermore.

Please kneel, as you are able.

THE POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

BCP, p. 366

Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

THE BLESSING

MUSIC NOTES

At the Name of Jesus, composed by Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958), is based on the familiar hymn tune, King's Weston. The composer uses this rustic-sounding tune to create a variety of soaring descants and harmonizations. Vaughan Williams was at the forefront of a movement that encouraged congregational singing. He edited The English Hymnal in 1906 with an emphasis on exceptional music to support the importance and meaning of the hymns' texts. "How lovely is thy dwelling place" is a setting of Psalm 84 found in A German Requiem by Johannes Brahms. The melodic lines represent the text beautifully, and it builds to the end with a sense of great assurance.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

In your prayers this week, please pray for the following:

In the Anglican Communion, we pray for the Church in Wales.

In the Diocese of Tennessee, we pray for St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Murfreesboro.

In our community, we pray for St. Mark Coptic Orthodox Church.

In our parish, we pray for the participants, leaders, and volunteers of St. George's Youth Ministry; our Nashville Fellows, Ridge, Viona, Josh, Morgan, and Hannah; and our Choral Scholar, Olivia.

YOUTH SUNDAY

Daniel Huff, Director of Youth Ministry
 Jill McElroy, Associate Director of Youth Ministry

A special thanks to all volunteers who provided meals for Youth Group, brought donuts on Sunday Mornings, opened their homes to host Bible studies, and provided support in a number of other ways. This ministry would not be possible without your generosity and hospitality.

Youth Sunday Today at the 8:45am service, we celebrate the youth in our congregation and their many contributions to our parish life. We'll share a reception at 10:00am to give thanks for their presence among us.

Ministry Match May! This month, we're celebrating the gifts of the Holy Spirit. God has blessed each of us with unique gifts and talents, and we invite you to share your gifts with your church family. As we look to Pentecost on May 28, we are asking new and long-time members to take the Ministry Match survey. This 3-minute survey allows you to identify new ways to serve in and through the church by using your God-given gifts. Every member who takes the survey will be entered in an exciting raffle on Sunday, May 28. Find the survey and browse volunteer opportunities at stgeorgesnashville.org/ministrymatch. Stay tuned for details about our Pentecost celebration and raffle on May 28.

Purple Martin Palooza The Episcopal School of Nashville's annual fundraiser, the Purple Martin Palooza, is this evening, May 7, at 5:30pm at the school, 1310 Ordway Place. This year's theme is "Beale Street Blues," and the event will feature live music, a silent auction, BBQ, and drinks. Volunteer needs and ticket details are online at stgeorgesnashville.org/news

Our Little Roses Mission Trip The deadline to register for the summer mission trip to Our Little Roses is Tuesday, May 9. Find details and registration online at stgeorgesnashville.org/outreach. Please contact Patsy Curry at pcurry@comcast.net with questions.

In Excelsis presents the Nashville Philharmonic Orchestra The final dedicatory performance is Tuesday, May 9, at 7:30pm featuring the NPO under the direction of Dr. Christopher Norton. The repertoire includes the thrilling Symphony No. 3 "Organ Symphony" by Saint-Saëns with Gerry Senechal and the Nashville premiere of New Zealand composer John Wells's Organ Concerto in D major with Dr. Woosug Kang, who performed this work's U.S. premiere in 2015.

Coffee & Conversation Join fellow seniors at our final Coffee & Conversation for the season. We'll gather Thursday, May 11, at 9:00am in the Gathering Space to meet old and new friends in fellowship.

Farmers Market Season is Here! St. George's farmers market brings the community together. Visit the market at the church every Thursday from 3:30-6:00pm to shop for a variety of fresh fruits and vegetables, baked goods, meat, fish, and more. In addition to supporting local growers and makers, a portion of the proceeds are donated to organizations responding to food insecurity in our city. Watch your email, and follow @stgeorgesfarmersmarket on Facebook and Instagram for weekly updates.

Church in the Yard May 13-14 St. George's volunteers are needed to prepare food Saturday morning and to set up worship and serve the meal on Sunday afternoon at Church of the Holy Trinity (615 6th Ave. S). St. George's supports this ministry the second Sunday of every month. Sign up online at stgeorgesnashville.org/outreach.

Bishop's Annual Visitation Bishop Bauerschmidt will make his annual visitation to St. George's on Sunday, May 14 as we present youth and adults to receive the Holy Spirit through confirmation.

Breaking Bread Please join us for food and fellowship in Legacy Hall on Wednesday, May 17, at 6:00pm. RSVP at 615-385-2150 x 262 or reserve@stgeorgesnashville.org. Suggested donation $8. Proceeds benefit the Choristers of St. George's.

Compline Traditionally the last service of the day before bedtime, this brief and beautiful service is set in a darkened church and sung by a small men's choir. Join us on Wednesday, May 17, in the Nave at 7:00pm immediately following the Lenten Dinner, and stay as long as you wish in this quiet space afterwards, departing in silence.

Prime Time Speakers Series Our May 18 presentation will be given by Mattie & Michael Shane Neal on "Two Generations in the Art World." Please make your reservation in advance for the $12 lunch online at stgeorgesnashville.org/seniors or our reservation line at 615-385-2150 x 262.

Sonus Choir Concert Sonus is a Nashville-based a capella choir with an emphasis on modern and sacred music. They are presenting a concert titled "Songs of Peace" here at St. George's on Thursday, May 18, at 7:30pm. Tickets are available at sonuschoir.com.

Parish Picnic & Combined Worship on May 21 Save the date! The annual church picnic is the perfect way to gather together as we shift into the summer season. Our 10:00am traditional and 10:00am Table services will worship together in the Nave, then gather outside behind the church for food, fellowship, and play. RSVP and sign up to volunteer at stgeorgesnashville.org/parishpicnic.

Choral Evensong Please join us for a Choral Evensong on Sunday, May 21, at 5:00pm in the Nave. Evensong is a service that has been sung daily in the Anglican Church throughout the world since the 16th century in which choral music and chant illuminate biblical texts to allow a time of stillness, meditation, and prayer.

Marywood University Chamber Singers The Marywood University Chamber Singers is a nationally-recognized ensemble from Marywood University in Scranton, Pennsylvania. They are presenting a concert at St. George's on Saturday, May 27, at 7:00pm. The program features Poulenc's Mass in G major, as well as music by Italian and Norwegian composers: Palestrina, Gesualdo, Menotti, Kverno, Arnesen, Gjeilo, Nystedt, and Hovland.

Lemonade & Cookies One of our favorite summer traditions will be back in just a few weeks. Lemonade & Cookies kicks off on Sunday, May 28, after the 10:00am services. This is a wonderful way to show hospitality to newcomers and share fellowship during the summer. Each week we need volunteers to bake or buy 4 dozen cookies each and serve as hosts for the fellowship hour. If you or your small group would like to provide cookies and serve as hosts one week this summer, please sign up online at stgeorgesnashville.org/lemonade or contact Mary Stinson at timandmary128@gmail.com.

Writing Group St. George's writing group meets monthly to encourage writers and would-be writers — specifically those who want to create a 'memoir' in the broadest sense of the word. We meet second Mondays at 1:30pm in Dandridge Hall, and members share what they have written (1,000 words or maybe less). We do not criticize – we encourage. We learn from each other, and we laugh a lot! If this speaks to you, contact Rosemary Kew at rosemarykew@outlook.com or 615-651-3909. Better yet, come and see!

Wellness Classes with Mary Gilliam As our bodies age, we can proactively engage in practices that build strength, flexibility, balance, cognition, and overall wellness. Mary Gilliam leads several classes offered weekly for all ages and abilities. Visit our website at stgeorgesnashville.org/wellness for details on these four classes at St. George's.

Holy Land Pilgrimage St. George's returns to the Holy Land and Egypt with a 14-day pilgrimage led by Malone & Mary Gilliam in January 2024. View the itinerary and make your deposit online for this special opportunity at stgeorgesnashville.org/holyland.

Daily Devotions Most Christians know that it is important to read the Scriptures on a daily basis, but are not quite sure how to go about it. The Daily Devotions that Richard Kew has been composing for the last 22 years fill that gap, and can be used alongside the Daily Devotion liturgies in the Book of Common Prayer. The Daily Devotions are delivered to your email every morning and are a good way to start the day, end the day, or use at lunchtime. If you would like to be added, send an email to richard.kew@stgeorgesnashville.org, and you will join several hundred others studying Scripture each day.

Your Gifts Make a Difference Thank you for supporting St. George's with your financial gifts and pledges. Donations like yours allow us to continue serving this congregation and our community by offering worship services, discipleship opportunities, and mission work. We could not do this work without you. Visit stgeorgesnashville.org/give or scan the QR code to donate online.

ORGAN INSTALLATION UPDATE

With organ construction and pipe installation complete, we enter a less visible phase of work. Tonal Director Fred Bahr and his team are working during to fine-tune the character and balance of each pipe's sound. The construction crew will return later for final adjustments as needed.

If you have a "T" switch that is compatible with audio induction systems on your hearing aids, you may switch it on to hear the service better.

Using a smartphone and headphones or a Bluetooth-enabled hearing device, you can tune into the service using AudioFetch. Connect to the Wi-Fi network called AudioFetchExpress, then open the AudioFetch app to start listening.
