

CRISIS RESPONSE TEAM MEMBER

OVERVIEW

The Crisis Response Team Members support the church's mission to "receive, live, and share the abundant life of Jesus Christ" by providing aid to individuals impacted by crises in Middle Tennessee.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Participate in workdays coordinated by the Crisis Response Team Leaders. Activities will be varied but may include:
 - Preparing and delivering water and food
 - Clearing debris
 - Rebuilding homes and businesses
- Complete all required liability releases and skills intake requests from partner agencies.
- Assist in recruiting ministry team members, helping to create a joyful, connected serving experience within the team.
- Participate in required training if needed.
- Receive communications via Realm when needs arise.
- Respond to communications from church staff and your volunteer team in a timely manner (usually within 72 hours).
- Communicate activities and feedback with Crisis Response Team Leaders.
- Fill out a reimbursement form and provide receipts for supplies purchased on behalf of the church, e.g. work gloves, garbage bags, water, food.

RELATIONSHIPS

The Crisis Response Team Members work directly with the Crisis Response Team Leaders to coordinate relief efforts.

TIME COMMITMENT

Varies, depending on local crises and St. George's response. Most workdays are approximately 8 hours and based upon team member availability.

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

Passion for serving others experiencing a crisis. Demonstrates mercy, wisdom, discernment, a non-anxious presence, and cultural and emotional intelligence.

RESOURCES AND TRAINING

Coordinates with the Crisis Response Team Leader for needed resources and participates in team training as needed.

Curious? Interested in this ministry?

Contact church member Cheryl Beasley, at cherylirvinbeasley48@gmail.com or 615-848-8344.