

OVERVIEW

Chefs on Call supports the church's mission to "receive, live, and share the abundant life of Jesus Christ" by providing a choice of casseroles for the immediate needs of our church family.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The committee selects recipes on a yearly basis, cooks together in the church kitchen. These casseroles are frozen and placed in the church freezer. The ministry is a great help to those who are unable to cook due to an illness and during a recovery period post-surgery.

RELATIONSHIPS

A wonderful friendship is formed while cooking together as a group during monthly cooking sessions.

TIME COMMITMENT

The Chefs on Call meet the first Saturday of every month for around 1.5 hours.

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

Interest in cooking for the urgent needs of church family.

RESOURCES AND TRAINING

None needed.
