

OVERVIEW

The Young Adult Social Committee supports the church's mission to "receive, live, and share the abundant life of Jesus Christ" by engaging young adults in fellowship opportunities. Young adults are generally perceived to be individuals between the ages of 21 and late 30s, who do not yet have children.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The Social Committee supports Young Adults by working with the Planning Committee to create multiple fellowship opportunities throughout the year. This will entail planning of events and determining details such as when, where, budget, food, speakers, guests, etc. This planning will also be done in coordination with appropriate staff.

RELATIONSHIPS

The Young Adults welcome all who wish to participate! Relationships with each other will be reinforced through fellowship opportunities.

TIME COMMITMENT

Varies based on each event; planning time and 1-2 hours day of event
