

OVERVIEW

The volunteer Room in the Inn Food Supporter for the Youth Ministry aids the church's mission to "receive, live, and share the abundant life of Jesus Christ" by providing safe transportation to and from the Fall Confirmation Retreat at Deer Run for our confirmands and volunteers.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Volunteers must drive his/her own vehicle and have a valid driver's license and insurance coverage.
- Sign up in advance to either drive students to or from (or both) the Confirmation Retreat at Deer Run Camps in Thompson's Station (45 minutes south of Nashville).
- Arrive at either St. George's (Friday afternoon) or Deer Run Camps (Sunday morning) 30 minutes prior to departure to load up luggage and students and then safely drive to/from the retreat.

RELATIONSHIPS

Confirmation Retreat Drivers will communicate with the Director of Youth Ministries to determine details of arrival/departure.

TIME COMMITMENT

Total travel time is roughly 90 minutes total (45 minutes each way)

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

Ability to drive safely, willingness to converse with confirmands and leaders

RESOURCES AND TRAINING

No special training required.
