

OVERVIEW

The Youth Parent Committee supports the church's mission to "receive, live, and share the abundant life of Jesus Christ" by serving as an active group of committed adults who provide feedback, guidance, and support for our Youth Ministry Staff.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Serve as supporters and advisors to the Youth Ministry Staff
- Serve as advocates for the youth ministry to the church at large
- Offer feedback on all aspects of the Youth Ministry from a parent's perspective.
- Provide insight and guidance to deal with any questions or conflicts that arise throughout the program year.
- Commit to regularly praying for our Youth Ministry staff, students, and programming.
- Engage with life at St. George's and regularly participate in congregational worship and programming.

RELATIONSHIPS

The Youth Parent Committee will work most closely with our Youth Ministry Staff as they offer wisdom and input throughout the year.

TIME COMMITMENT

Volunteers commit to a quarterly meeting for one hour, and then consult as needs arises.

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

Passion and support for St. George's Youth Ministry, parenting experience and active awareness of the lives of our students, willingness to offer advice.

RESOURCES AND TRAINING

There will be an initial meeting for the Parent Youth Committee but is no required training to serve in this capacity.
