OPENING VOLUNTARY Prelude in D Minor

Edward Bairstow

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Please stand, as you are able, for the hymn.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN • 381 Thy strong word did cleave the darkness

Ton-y-Botel

Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Book of Common Prayer (BCP), p. 323

And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE SUMMARY OF THE LAW

BCP, p. 324

Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ saith:

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

SONG OF PRAISE Glory be to God

(Hymn S204) Old Scottish Chant

1. Glory be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will towards men. 2. We praise thee, we bless thee, we wor-ship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glo-ry. 3. O Lord God, heaven-ly King, God the Father Al-might-y. 4. O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Je-sus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Fa-ther, 5. that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy up-on us. 6. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, re-ceive our prayer. 7. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Fa-ther, have mercy up-on us. 8. For thou on-ly art ho-ly; thou on-ly art the Lord; 9. Thou only, O Christ, with the Ho-ly Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Fa-ther. A-men.

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins and give us, we beseech thee, the liberty of that abundant life which thou hast manifested to us in thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON The reading is printed on page 9 of this bulletin.

Isaiah 6:1–8

At the conclusion of the reading, the lector says

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 138

Chant by J. Naylor

The response is sung first by the choir, then by all as indicated.

1 I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with my whole heart;

before the gods I will sing your praise.

2 I will bow down toward your holy temple

and praise your Name,

because of your love and faithfulness;

3 For you have glorified your Name and your word above all things.

Response

4 When I called, you answered me;

you increased my strength within me.

5 All the kings of the earth will praise you, O Lord, when they have heard the words of your mouth.

6 They will sing of the ways of the Lord,

that great is the glory of the Lord.

Response

7 Though the Lord be high, he cares for the lowly;

he perceives the haughty from afar.

8 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe;

you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;

your right hand shall save me.

9 The Lord will make good his purpose for me;

O Lord, your love endures for ever;

do not abandon the works of your hands.

Response

Please stand, as you are able, for the hymn.

HYMN • 321 My God, thy table now is spread

Rockingham

A priest reads the Gospel, saying

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

At the conclusion of the Gospel, the priest says

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

THE SERMON

The Rev. Tammy Smith Firestone

Please stand, as you are able, for the Creed.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please kneel, as you are able, for the Prayers of the People.

With all our heart and with all our mind, let us pray to the Lord, saying “Lord, have mercy.”

For the peace of the world, for the welfare of the Holy Church of God, and for the unity of all peoples, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin, for our Presiding Bishop Michael, for our Bishop John, and for all the clergy and people, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For our President Donald; for the leaders of the nations; for all in authority especially our Governor Bill and our Mayor David; for parishioner Bill Hagerty, our Ambassador to Japan, and his family; and for the members of the armed forces serving our country, especially Matt Smith and John Womack, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For Nashville, for every city and community, and for those who live in them.

In the Anglican Communion, we pray for the Anglican Church of Canada.

In our diocese, we pray for Church of the Resurrection in Franklin and St. Matthew’s Church in McMinnville.

In our community, we pray for Woodmont Christian Church.

In our parish, we pray for Scout Troops 31 and 78; our missionaries to Our Little Roses, Honduras; our Nashville Fellows Daniel, Alicia, Noemie, and Julie; our Organ Scholar Nara; and our Choral Scholar Luke.

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the good earth which God has given us, and for the wisdom and will to conserve it, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the aged and infirm, for the widowed and orphans, and for the sick and the suffering, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the poor and the oppressed, for the unemployed and the destitute, for prisoners and captives, and for all who remember and care for them, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For all who have died, in the hope of the resurrection, and for all the departed, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For deliverance from all danger, violence, oppression, and degradation and for our enemies and those who wish us harm, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

That we may end our lives in faith and hope, without suffering and without reproach, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

In the communion of St. George and of all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life, to Christ our God.

To thee, O Lord our God.

Silence is kept.

The celebrant prays the concluding Collect and the people respond Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

BCP, p. 330

Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against thee in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved thee with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in thy will, and walk in thy ways, to the glory of thy Name. Amen.

THE ABSOLUTION

BCP, p. 332

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SENTENCE OF SCRIPTURE

BCP, p. 332

Please stand, as you are able, for the Peace.

THE PEACE

BCP, p. 332

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And with thy spirit.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Please be seated for the Offertory.

THE OFFERTORY

Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace
The Choristers of St. George's

Samuel Sebastian Wesley

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee. The darkness is no darkness with Thee, but the night is as clear as the day. The darkness and the light to Thee are both alike. God is light and in Him is no darkness at all. O let my soul live, and it shall praise Thee. For Thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory, for evermore.

Please stand, as you are able, as the offerings are brought forward.

AT THE PRESENTATION The Doxology

(Hymn 380, verse 3) Old 100th

Praise God, from whom all bless - ings flow; praise him, all crea-tures here be - low; praise him a - bove, ye heaven - ly host: praise Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost.

And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us, and, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be unto us the Body and Blood of thy dearly-beloved Son Jesus Christ.

And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech thee, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction; and also that we and all thy whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord;

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD & THE FRACTION ANTHEM

BCP, p. 333

Christ our Passover

(Hymnal S152) Martens

Al - le - lu - ia. Christ our Pass - o - ver is sac - ri - ficed for us;
There - fore let us keep the feast. Al - le - lu - ia.

Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

NOTES ON RECEIVING COMMUNION All baptized Christians are invited to receive the sacrament, regardless of age or denomination. Those who have not been baptized are welcome to come to the communion rail for a blessing. You may indicate your desire for a blessing by simply crossing your arms over your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available from the intinction cup to the left of the lectern. If it is not easy for you to come to the altar rail, please inform an usher and we will bring the Eucharist to you.

AN INVITATION TO RECEIVE HEALING PRAYER During the distribution of communion, the chapel is open for healing prayer. If you desire prayers for healing, for yourself or others, you may go to the Chapel after receiving communion. A priest and a lay person will be present to pray with you.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence

Edward Bairstow

The Choristers of St. George's

Soloists: Luke Harnish and John Logan Wood

Let all mortal flesh keep silence,
And stand with fear and trembling,
And lift itself above all earthly thought,
For the King of kings and Lord of lords,
Christ our God,
Cometh forth to be our oblation,

And to be giv'n for Food to the faithful.
Before Him come the choirs of angels,
With ev'ry principality and pow'r;
The Cherubim with many eyes,
And winged Seraphim, who veil their faces
As they shout exultingly the hymn,
Alleluia.

Please kneel, as you are able, for the prayer.

THE POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

BCP, p. 339

Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee for that thou dost feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favor and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs, through hope, of thy everlasting kingdom. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

THE BLESSING

Please stand, as you are able, for the Processional Hymn.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN • 535 Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim

MUSIC NOTES Samuel Sebastian Wesley, whose middle name honors the great composer J.S. Bach, composed some of the most prolific Anglican anthems during his time, when many churches struggled with overall quality in their church music. Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace by Wesley has a beautiful melody that harmonizes masterfully with changes in tempo and dynamics throughout the piece. Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence by Edward Bairstow is one of the greatest examples of how music is shaped by the text, and Bairstow brings out the drama of the text with his musical language.

READINGS

OLD TESTAMENT READING

Isaiah 6:1–8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.” The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: “Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!” Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: “Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.” Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” And I said, “Here am I; send me!”

NEW TESTAMENT READING

1 Corinthians 15:1–11

Now I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Luke 5:1–11

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.” Simon answered, “Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.” When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, “Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!” For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.” When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.
