OPENING VOLUNTARY Rhosymedre

Ralph Vaughan Williams

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Please stand, as you are able, for the Opening Hymn.

OPENING HYMN • 527 Singing songs of expectation

TON-Y-BOTEL

Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Book of Common Prayer (BCP), p. 323

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE SUMMARY OF THE LAW

BCP, p. 324

Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ saith:

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

BCP, p. 183

The Lord be with you.
And with thy spirit.
 Let us pray.

Lord, we pray thee that thy grace may always precede and follow us, and make us continually to be given to all good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

THE READING

Hebrews 4:12-16

The word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account. Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

PSALM 22:1-11

Chant by C.E. Miller

The response is sung first by the choir, then by all as indicated.

My God, my God, why have You for - sa - ken me?

- 1 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? *
 and are so far from my cry
 and from the words of my distress?
- 2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer; *
 by night as well, but I find no rest.
- 3 Yet you are the Holy One, *
 enthroned upon the praises of Israel.
- 4 Our forefathers put their trust in you; *
 they trusted, and you delivered them.

Response

5 They cried out to you and were delivered; *
 they trusted in you and were not put to shame.
 6 But as for me, I am a worm and no man, *
 scorned by all and despised by the people.
 7 All who see me laugh me to scorn; *
 they curl their lips and wag their heads, saying, 8 “He trusted in the Lord; let him deliver him; *
 let him rescue him, if he delights in him.”

Response

9 Yet you are he who took me out of the womb, *
 and kept me safe upon my mother’s breast.
 10 I have been entrusted to you ever since I was born; *
 you were my God when I was still in my mother’s womb.
 11 Be not far from me, for trouble is near, *
 and there is none to help.

Response

Please stand, as you are able.

SEQUENCE HYMN • 592 Teach me, my God and King

CARLISLE

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Mark 10:17-31

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: ‘You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honor your father and mother.’” He said to him, “Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.” Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, “You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.” When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!” And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.” They were greatly astounded and said to one another, “Then who can be saved?” Jesus looked at them and said, “For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.”

Peter began to say to him, “Look, we have left everything and followed you.” Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.”

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

THE SERMON

The Rev. Caroline Osborne

Please stand, as you are able, for the Creed.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please kneel, as you are able, for the prayers.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE, FORM III

BCP, p. 387

Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
That we all may be one.

Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
That your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

We pray for your guidance of those who shall choose a rector for this parish, that we may receive a faithful pastor, who will care for your people and equip us for our ministries.

We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

We pray for our president, Joe, our Governor, Bill, and our Mayor, John. We pray for those serving our country in the armed forces. We pray for our enemies and for those who wish us harm.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
That our works may find favor in your sight.

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
that they may be delivered from their distress.

We pray especially for Richard Baker, Reba Barker, Lyn Downey, Barney Evers, Marge Maxwell, Carol Miller, Susan Narramore, Acra Samuels, and Mary Ready Taylor. We pray especially for all who are affected by COVID-19, either through illness or isolation or anxiety, that they may find relief and recovery.

Give to the departed eternal rest, especially Dorothy Butterbrodt;
Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others. You are invited to add your own intercessions and thanksgivings, either silently or aloud.

Silence is kept.

*The celebrant prays the concluding Collect, and the people respond Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

BCP, p. 330

Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against thee in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved thee with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in thy will, and walk in thy ways, to the glory of thy Name. Amen.

THE ABSOLUTION

BCP, p. 332

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SENTENCE OF SCRIPTURE

BCP, p. 332

THE PEACE

BCP, p. 332

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And with thy spirit.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

THE OFFERTORY

O how amiable

Ralph Vaughan Williams

O how amiable are thy dwellings, thou Lord of hosts!
My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord.
My heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.
Yea, the sparrow hath found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young:
even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King, and my God.
Blessed are they that dwell in thy house.
They will be always praising thee.
The glorious majesty of the Lord our God be upon us;
prosper thou the work of our hands upon us.
O prosper thou our handiwork.
O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home.

Please stand, as you are able, as the offerings are brought forward.

AT THE PRESENTATION The Doxology

(Hymn 380, verse 3) OLD 100TH

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host: praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING Eucharistic Prayer II

BCP, p. 340

The Lord be with you.
And with thy spirit.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up unto the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is meet and right so to do.

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty, everlasting God.

The celebrant says a Proper Preface.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying,

Holy, holy, holy

(Hymnal S114) Willan

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - - ly, Lord God of Hosts: Hea-ven and earth are full of thy Please kneel or remain standing, as you are able.

All glory be to thee, O Lord our God, for that thou didst create heaven and earth, and didst make us in thine own image; and, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption. He made there a full and perfect sacrifice for the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again.

For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks to thee, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me."

Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy people do celebrate and make, with these thy holy gifts which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; and looking for his coming again with power and great glory.

And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us, and, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be unto us the Body and Blood of thy dearly-beloved Son Jesus Christ.

And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech thee, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction; and also that we and all thy whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord;

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Christ our Passover

(Hymnal S152) Martens

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

NOTES ON RECEIVING COMMUNION Please proceed up the center aisle and stand or kneel at the altar rail. To continue ensuring the safety of everyone who worships at St. George's, we will not be offering wine during Communion on Sundays until COVID-19 case numbers decrease. In the Episcopal tradition, receiving the bread alone is to receive full Communion. Gluten-free wafers are available upon request. Return to your seat by the side aisles. All baptized Christians are invited to receive the sacrament, regardless of age or denomination. Those who have not been baptized are welcome to a blessing. You may indicate your desire for a blessing by simply crossing your arms over your chest.

After receiving communion, those who desire it may go to the Chapel for healing prayer.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

Behold the Tabernacle of God

William Harris

Behold, the tabernacle of God is with you,
and the Spirit God dwelleth within you.
For the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.
For the love of whom ye do this day celebrate the joys of the temple with a season of festivity. Alleluia.

Please kneel, as you are able, for the prayer.

THE POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

BCP, p. 339

Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee for that thou dost feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favor and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs, through hope, of thy everlasting kingdom. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

MUSIC NOTE Highly influential in developing the identity of English music, Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958) was a prolific British composer. In addition to his original compositions, he is also well-known for his editing work on the English Hymnal (1906), which remains one of the most highly-regarded hymnals in the Anglican tradition. Vaughan Williams utilizes the hymn “O God, our help in ages past” (hymn 680) as the foundation of his anthem O how amiable. The beautifully lyrical lines introduced by the trebles build to a roaring organ part. The climax features the choir singing the hymn in unison, illustrating a sense of assurance and confidence in God. William Harris (1883-1973) also a prominent figure in the field of Anglican music, was lovingly known as “Doc H” by his choristers. Behold, the tabernacle of God is the most well-known anthem by Harris. Powerful harmonic progressions and soaring melodic lines lead to gentle and reverent ending on the word “Alleluia.”

PRAYER INTENTIONS

In your prayers this week, please pray for the following:

In the Anglican Communion, we pray for Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby, and the Church of the Province of West Africa.

In the Episcopal Church, we pray for Presiding Bishop, Michael Curry.

In the Diocese of Tennessee, we pray for our Bishop, John Bauerschmidt, and the Episcopal School of Nashville.

In our community, we pray for Forest Hills Baptist Church.

In our parish, we pray for St. George's Children's and Family Ministries; our Nashville Fellows, Molly, Gretta, John, and Emma; and our Choral Scholar, Preston.

Live Gratefully, Live Generously It is thanks to your generosity that we are able to minister to this parish family, and to our community. Your gifts help us all actively engage in God's mission in the world. In the coming weeks, we invite you to reflect on the blessings in your life and talk with your family or clergy about your pledge to St. George's. Pledge via Realm on our website, or complete a pledge card and drop it in an offering plate. For more information, visit stgeorgesnashville.org/annualcampaign.

Your Input Is Needed St. George's Vestry Nominating Committee is comprised of past and current members of St. George's vestry, charged with the important task of seeking and recommending qualified candidates to serve as vestry members for three-year terms. The Vestry Nominating Committee is actively soliciting input from fellow parishioners to fill the vestry slate for next year. If you have a recommendation or would like to serve on the vestry, please contact a member of the committee immediately or email info@stgeorgesnashville.org. This year's nominating committee is: Craig Laine (Senior Warden), Charlotte Ward (Junior Warden), James Hundley, Anne Maradik, Graham Meadors, Sally Nesbitt, David Silvester, and Kelly Worman. We are thankful for your valuable feedback and for the hard work the committee does to ensure the very best leadership for our parish.

Our Little Roses Dress Collection Let's help the girls at Our Little Roses in Honduras celebrate the Christmas season. Dress donations may be brought to the Gathering Space on Sunday, October 10, and they'll be sent down to Honduras in time to celebrate Christmas. Bring new or "like new" lightweight dresses in children's sizes 4T-16 or teen sizes 1-9 (XS-M). Please provide a gift receipt for new purchases to help us exchange for a needed size. Questions? We'll hold a brief Service of Remembrance on Sunday, October 17, at 10:05am in the Chapel is for anyone who has experienced grief or loss in the last year.

Nashville Philharmonic Orchestra Concert After a 20-month hiatus, the Nashville Philharmonic Orchestra is excited to announce its return to in-person performances, beginning with its upcoming concert on Tuesday, October 19, at 7:30pm here at St. George's Episcopal Church. This concert is free and open to the public. The theme for this first of four series is "Festive Return," which speaks not only to the repertoire, but to the spirit of the musicians who have yearned to gather safely after a long year of Zoom sectionals and solitary practicing at home. The NPO is an all-volunteer community orchestra now in its 18th season. All NPO musicians, staff, and volunteer ushers are fully vaccinated and will be masked at all times. Audience members will be required to wear a mask at all times. Visit nashvillephilharmonic.org for additional information.

Compline Wednesday, October 20, at 9:15pm in the Nave. Traditionally the last service of the day before bedtime, this brief and beautiful service is set in a darkened church and sung by a small men's choir. Join us for the service in the Nave, and stay as long as you wish afterwards in this quiet space, departing in silence.

Prime Time Speaker Series Join us Thursday, October 21, at 11:30am to learn about the work being done to protect Tennessee's beautiful landscapes, historic sites, family farms, and more. The Land Trust for Tennessee's President & CEO Liz McLaurin and Vice President Emily Parish will be here to talk about land conservation and the impact it has on all Tennesseans. RSVP by Monday, October 18 for this $10 lunch at 615-385-2150 x 262 or reserve@stgeorgesnashville.org.

Harvest Dinner Sign up today! The tradition continues on Sunday, October 24, at 5:30 pm in Legacy Hall. All adults are invited and are asked to sign up no later than October 13. This year, each table will seat 8 people, and we will place you at a table with St. George's leaders serving as table hosts. The church will provide dinnerware, utensils, and decorations, and our main dish will again be provided by Edley's Bar-B-Que. Your table host will coordinate side dishes, and the event is BYOB. Visit stgeorgesnashville.org/harvestdinner to sign up. Contact Catherine Beemer with questions, Catherine.beemer@stgeorgesnashville.org.

Alpha Marriage Led by the Rev. Margery Kennelly and Richard Kennelly, Alpha Marriage meets Thursdays, October 28 to December 16, 6:00 at 8:00pm. This seven-session program is designed to help couples invest in their relationship and build a strong marriage. Each session will include a dinner with couples seated at their own table for two, a practical video presentation, and time for couples to have private conversation. Couples are not expected to share anything about their relationship with the group. Details and registration can be found at stgeorgesnashville.org/alpha.

Ordinary Saints We are thrilled to announce that our fall and winter show will be the collaborative work of three men: painter Bruce Herman, poet Malcolm Guite, and composer J.A.C. Redford. The show focuses on God's revelation of himself through his "ordinary saints." All three artists will collaborate to launch the show in the Bradford Gallery with a reception and performance on Friday, October 29, at 5:30pm. Tickets for this opening event will go on sale soon.

English Teachers for Holy Land Students Jesse Van Volkenburgh is Director of the English Language Learners (ELL) program with Helping Holy Land Christians. Through this program, volunteer teachers work with high schoolers, university students, and adults who want help improving their English. We need more teachers willing to email and then Zoom with these students in the Holy Land. For information about this gratifying work, contact Jesse at 615-594-9181 or jessvanv@gmail.com.

Annual Campaign Frequently Asked Questions: What percent of the church's annual budget is supported by pledges? For the calendar year 2020, about 86 percent of our $3.9 million budget was supported by pledges to St. George's. How can I make a pledge? Fill out a paper pledge card and drop it in the offering plate at Sunday services; or pledge online through Realm at onrealm.org. For other questions or to discuss your giving plans, please contact Catherine Beemer, Director of Parish Giving, at Catherine.beemer@stgeorgesnashville.org, or 615-385-2150.

Reopening Plan St. George's remains committed to staying open in a safe and responsible manner. Thank you for honoring these guidelines to keep St. George's a safe place. We encourage everyone to wear a mask in the church on Sundays regardless of vaccination status. Our children and youth aged 2 and older will be required to wear masks while in an indoor classroom setting, including (but not limited to) Sunday school and mid-week gatherings. Adults working with infants, children, and youth will wear masks. In addition, we will offer socially-distanced seating areas in the back of the Nave and in the balcony, and we ask people in those areas to wear masks during the service. The seats in The Table will remain socially-distanced.
