

THE HOLY EUCHARIST: RITE II

The Last Sunday After Pentecost:
Christ the King

November 22, 2020 | 9:00am

The people's responses are in bold.

OPENING VOLUNTARY Pavane for the Earl of Salisbury

William Byrd

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

We ask our in-person congregation to refrain from singing during today's music selections in order to abide by safety guidelines. Our choir will sing the hymns and service music on behalf of all of us. We invite those worshiping at home to join the choir in singing.

Please stand, as you are able, for the Opening Hymn.

OPENING HYMN • 494 vv. 1, 4, and 5 Crown him with many crowns

Diademata

Crown him with many crowns,
the Lamb upon his throne;
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
all music but its own;
awake, my soul, and sing
of him who died for thee,
and hail him as thy matchless King
through all eternity.

Crown him the Lord of heaven,
enthroned in worlds above;
Crown him the King, to whom is given the wondrous name of Love.
Crown him with many crowns,
as thrones before him fall,
crown him, ye kings, with many crowns,
for he is King of all.

Crown him of lords the Lord,
who over all doth reign,
who once on earth, the incarnate Word,
for ransomed sinners slain,
now lives in realms of light,
where saints with angels sing
their songs before him day and night, their God, Redeemer, King.

Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
And blessed be his kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

Book of Common Prayer (BCP), p.355

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A SONG OF PRAISE Gloria in excelsis

(Hymn S236) Rutter

Glory to you, Lord God of our fathers;
you are worthy of praise; glory to you.

Glory to you, seated between the Cherubim;
we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

Glory to you for the radiance of your holy Name;
we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

Glory to you, beholding the depths;
in the high vault of heaven, glory to you.

Glory to you in the splendor of your temple;
on the throne of your majesty, glory to you.

Glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit;
we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

BCP, p. 236

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, whose will it is to restore all things in your well-beloved Son, the King of kings and Lord of lords: Mercifully grant that the peoples of the earth, divided and enslaved by sin, may be freed and brought together under his most gracious rule; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

THE READING

Ezekiel 34:11–16, 20–24

Thus says the Lord God: I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. As shepherds seek out their flocks when they are among their scattered sheep, so I will seek out my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places to which they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited parts of the land. I will feed them with good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and they shall feed on rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord God. I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them with justice. Therefore, thus says the Lord God to them: I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. Because you pushed with flank and shoulder, and butted at all the weak animals with your horns until you scattered them far and wide, I will save my flock, and they shall no longer be ravaged; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd. And I, the Lord, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them; I, the Lord, have spoken.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

PSALM 100

Chanted by the choir

- 1 Be joyful in the Lord, all you lands;
serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song.
- 2 Know this: The Lord himself is God;
he himself has made us, and we are his;
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.
- 3 Enter his gates with thanksgiving;
go into his courts with praise;
give thanks to him and call upon his Name.
- 4 For the Lord is good;
his mercy is everlasting;
and his faithfulness endures from age to age.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Matthew 25:31–46

A priest reads the Gospel, saying

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.' Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?' And the king will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.' Then he will say to those at his left hand, 'You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.' Then they also will answer, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?' Then he will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.' And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

At the conclusion of the Gospel, the priest says

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

The Rev. Colin Ambrose

Please stand, as you are able, for the Creed.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,

of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
 he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
 and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
 he suffered death and was buried.
 On the third day he rose again
 in accordance with the Scriptures;
He ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
 and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE, FORM III

BCP, p. 387

Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
That we all may be one.

In the Anglican Communion we pray for the Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin, and the Church of Bermuda.
In the Episcopal Church we pray for our Presiding Bishop, Michael.
In the Diocese of Tennessee we pray for our Bishop, John, and St. Barnabas Church, Tullahoma.
In the community we pray for Christ the King Roman Catholic Church and Jones Padeaia Elementary School.
In our parish we pray for the Boulevard Bolt and our Nashville Fellows Brianna, Clay, DeLacy, and Garner.
Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
That your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

We pray for our president, Donald, our president-elect, Joe, our governor, Bill, and our mayor, John. We pray for the members of our parish serving our country in the armed forces. We pray for our enemies and those who wish us harm. Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

That our works may find favor in your sight.

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble,
that they may be delivered from their distress;
especially Sue Atkinson, Reba Barker, Betty Graham, Nancy Hill. Marge Maxwell, John Mynatt, Susan Narramore, Caroline Osborne, Kelly Price, Acra Samuels, and Mary Ready Taylor.

Give to the departed eternal rest.
Let light perpetual shine upon them;
especially John Wooten Carpenter, Jr., father of Kim King, and Freddy Inman, brother of Nancy Hill.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others. You are invited to add your own intercessions and thanksgivings, either silently or aloud.

Silence is kept.

The celebrant prays the concluding Collect and the people respond Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

BCP, p. 360

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

THE ABSOLUTION

BCP, p. 360

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

BCP, p. 360

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Please be seated for the Offertory.

THE OFFERTORY

Lift up your heads W. Mathias

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up ye everlasting doors, and the King of glory shall come in.
Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, lift up your heads, O ye gates, even lift them up, ye everlasting doors, and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is this King of glory? The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Please stand, as you are able, as the offerings are brought forward.

him a - bove, ye heaven - ly host: praise Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING Eucharistic Prayer B

BCP, p. 367

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

The celebrant says a Proper Preface.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The choir sings Holy, holy, holy

(Hymnal S129) Powell

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,

We await his coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD & THE FRACTION ANTHEM

BCP, p. 364

Christ our Passover
Martens

(Hymnal S152)

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

NOTES ON RECEIVING COMMUNION Please stay standing at your seats. A priest will come to you to administer the bread. According to safety guidelines, the cup will not be offered. All baptized Christians are invited to receive the sacrament, regardless of age or denomination. Those who have not been baptized are welcome to a blessing. You may indicate your desire for a blessing by simply crossing your arms over your chest. When you have received the bread, please be seated.

AN INVITATION TO RECEIVE HEALING PRAYER Following the distribution of communion, the Chapel is open for healing prayer. If you desire prayers for healing, for yourself or others, you may go to the Chapel after receiving communion. A priest and a lay person will be present to pray with you.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

Crown of Roses

P. Tchaikovsky

When Jesus Christ was yet a child
He had a garden small and wild,
Wherein He cherished roses fair,
And wove them into garlands there.

Do you bind roses in your hair?
They cried, in scorn, to Jesus there,
The Boy said humbly: "Take, I pray,
All but the naked thorns away."

Now once, as summer time drew nigh,
There came a troop of children by,
And seeing roses on the tree,
With shouts they plucked them merrily.

Then of the thorns they made a crown,
And with rough fingers pressed it down,
Till on His forehead fair and young,
Red drops of blood like roses sprung.

Please kneel, as you are able, for the prayer.

THE POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

BCP, p. 366

Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

THE BLESSING

Please stand, as you are able, for the Processional Hymn.

CLOSING HYMN • 390 vv. 1, 2, and 4 Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation
Herren

Lobe den

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation;
O my soul, praise him, for he is thy health and salvation:
join the great throng,
psaltery, organ, and song,
sounding in glad adoration.

Praise to the Lord; over all things he gloriously reigneth:
borne as on eagle-wings, safely his saints he sustaineth.
Hast thou not seen how all thou needest hath been granted in what he ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore him!
All that hath life and breath come now with praises before him!
Let the amen
sound from his people again;
gladly for ever adore him.

THE DISMISSAL

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

MUSIC NOTES As we mark Christ the King Sunday, the anthem "Lift up ye heads" by William Mathias (1934-1992) brings a strong image of the glorious King on the throne. This text is inspired by Psalm 24:7-10, and Mathias's unique musical language shines through in its delivery. The rhythm feels almost too straight forward and angular, however, it accentuates the text masterfully. The strong organ accompaniment carries the piece throughout, and when the choir sings "Who is this King of glory?," it brings a sense of anticipation and quickly affirms the question with great vitality. Contrasted with this anthem, "Crown of Roses" by Peter Tchaikovsky (1840-1893) brings the image of Jesus suffering wearing the crown of thorns. Tchaikovsky is not a name we see often in sacred church music, but more in fantastic orchestral music for ballet such as The Nutcracker. But this anthem, which was originally a solo piece later arranged into a choral work, is rich in warm harmonies and brings great expression to the text.

Essentials: The Book of Genesis The small group study on Mark has been such a meaningful and formative way for people to connect with one another and with scripture this fall. Over 36 groups participated! We're excited to continue this offering beginning in February as we read through Genesis. This is a great time for people to join a small group - look for more details to come. Contact Martha Rodes at martha.rodas@stgeorgesnashville.org if you have questions.

The Boulevard Bolt: Keep Calm and Bolt On The Boulevard Bolt has gone virtual this year. Run or walk anywhere you choose between November 23 and 26. For more information and to register, go to boulevardbolt.org.

Thanksgiving Day Service Join us at 10:00am in the Nave for a service of Holy Eucharist and make worship a special part of your Thanksgiving tradition.

Advent Wreath Making Next Sunday, November 29 We are excited to offer advent wreath making under the tent at St. George's. Join us for this festive event complete with Christmas decorations, music, and a sweet treat to take home! If you would like to participate, you will need to sign-up in advance for a 20 minute slot. If you are available to help, we need volunteers from 11am-1pm and 1pm-3pm. Please contact Cate Jones, Director of Children's and Family Ministries, at cate.jones@stgeorgesnashville.org for more information.

Family Advent Boxes Looking for ways in which to slow down and spend time as a family contemplating the beautiful Advent season? This year St. George's is offering Advent Boxes to help you do just that. Included in the boxes are weekly Bible studies, an Advent Ornament Calendar, a paper Advent wreath with LED candles, a Las Posadas activity pack, and more. Boxes will be available for pick-up starting at the Advent Fair on Sunday, November 29, from 11am-3pm. If you need to schedule a different time to pick-up your box, please contact Cate Jones, Director of Children's and Family Ministries, at cate.jones@stgeorgesnashville.org.

Christmas Memorial Flowers Honor your loved ones with your Christmas flower offering this year by Monday, December 14. You may fill out the envelope in the pew and drop it in the offering plate or go online to stgeorgesnashville.org/news-and-events.

St. Luke's Toy Drive Give the gift of Christmas to a child in need this season! You may bring your new, unwrapped toy to the church offices during the week or the Narthex on Sundays. This year, you can also order from Amazon and have toys sent directly to St. Luke's. Deadline for donations is Sunday, December 6. For more information and to order from Amazon, go to stlch.org/christmas2020. You may also go to the same link to Adopt-A-Senior.

It's Nametag November Nametags aren't just a helpful way to remember people's names; they actually help us when we are all wearing masks. This November, St. George's is pushing for all church members to wear nametags every Sunday. Wearing nametags will help us grow in our familiarity with one another, with newcomers, and, yes, in recognizing each other. Contact Susalee Spruill at 615-385-2150x247 or susalee.spruill@stgeorgesnashville.org for your nametag today. Please specify which service you attend and your nametag will be at that service to pick up.

Giving Boxes Available It's never too early to start talking to our children about living a generous life! This stewardship season our youngest members are invited to fill their own "giving" boxes. The boxes have been included with the Sunday School materials for November. If you need a box, contact Catherine Beemer, Director of Parish Giving, at catherine.beemer@stgeorgesnashville.org. Giving boxes can be returned to the church beginning November 23 and leading up to celebration Sunday on December 6. Watch Friday emails for specific times and drop-off locations.

Anna: A Short Film Presentation Wednesday, December 2 at 7:00pm Will Thomas will present his short film, Anna, as part of our Biblical Justice series. Based on true events, Anna is the story of one woman's quest for freedom and family. It is an incredibly creative and collaborative work that tells a story that research had previously gotten wrong. Go to stgeorgesnashville.org/biblicaljustice for more information.

Walk In Love Join us in this opportunity for all women to focus on a verse of scripture and attend to how God speaks into our life. We meet at Edwin Warner Nature Center, 7311 Hwy 100, at 9:15am every Thursday. We will gather rain or shine and walk for about 45 minutes on paved roads, maintaining 6 feet of social distance between households, and wearing masks. Strollers welcome and encouraged. For more information please contact Cate Jones, Director of Children's and Family Ministries, at cate.jones@stgeorgesnashville.org, or the Rev. Margery Kennelly at margery.kennelly@stgeorgesnashville.org.

This 'N That Thrift Shop Needs Volunteers This 'n That Thrift Shop provides essential support to St. Luke's Community House. They have reopened for business but need more volunteers to be able to operate their regular hours. For more information, please contact Ron Watson at thisnthattrift@comcast.net or at 615-292-4032.

Sunday School Packets for PreK-6th Grade Pick up new Sunday school activity packets during the week outside the church offices. This month's packets include activity sheets and crafts for Bible stories. For any questions, contact Cate Jones, Director of Children's and Family Ministries, at cate.jones@stgeorgesnashville.org.
